BODY PAINTING COLORS DOWNTOWN SANTA ROSA FRIDAY

Santa Rosa, CA. June 2009— The Arts District embraces the new this week as FairyDust Faces has been invited to do a live body painting demonstration in Court House Square during its First Friday on 4th event from 4-8pm this Friday June 5, 2009.

The art team from FairyDust Faces plans to replica an Asian inspired waterfall scene across the front of their model, Alison Pankey, a Berkeley native. Body Painting, has evolved from early societies and counter culture to become more main stream in the past several years appearing everywhere from fashion runways to the recent Human Race.

Model Alison Pankey loves everything about the experience including the “creation of a transitory form of art, which exists just for a finite amount of time, plus when the model moves the beauty of the painting springs to life.” FairyDust Faces will also be body painting models at the July and September First Friday events.

Karen Baker, founding artist of FairyDust Faces and co-director of the North Bay Face Painting And Body Art Guild is extensively committed to the success of art instruction in public schools and in local youth organizations. She teaches art and creativity through the Rohnert Park Parks and Recreation Department, the Sonoma County Library System as well as to private groups and individuals. FairyDust Faces can transform your average corporate event or private party into a show-stopping crowd-pleaser. Guests can choose from fabulous face painting, glitter or airbrush tattoos, or awesome original henna designs. Experience the magic of FairyDust!
